

Canada and Alaska Touring Holidays

With a “Tradition of Excellence” that stretches back more than 130 years, you can be assured of experiencing Alaska in the most scenic and comfortable way on a Holland America Line cruise.

As well as continually offering our guests new cruise destinations and on-board experiences, we also work with experts on land to create unique opportunities to combine our cruises with spectacular tours

Now you can enhance your Holland America Line Alaska cruise with the breathtaking grandeur of the Canadian Rockies or the national parks, wildlife and history of the “Great Land” for the perfect 14-night plus holiday to this beautiful region of the world.

Canadian Rockies & Alaska

The Canadian Rockies and Alaska are two of the world’s most breathtaking travel destinations, offering the most spectacular of mountain scenery, glaciers and gorges; pristine lakes and waterfalls. The essence of nature at its most beautiful, its wildest.

Holland America Line, has joined forces with Canada expert Travelsphere to bring you the very best of Alaska and the Canadian Rockies on this special touring holiday that takes in all the highlights – Banff, Lake Louise, Kelowna and Vancouver, as well as seven nights' Alaska cruising on board the elegant Statendam.

Alaska Touring

Alaska has three thousand rivers, three million lakes and more than five thousand glaciers. From the snowy north to the rich farmland of the interior, and the spellbinding scenery of its rugged coastline, this vast landscape offers a world of contrasts. Include the fascinating heritage of the Gold Rush and the Alaska railroad; glimpses of grizzly bears, golden eagles and herds of caribou as you ride through some of the two million acres of magnificent Denali National Park, and you have a unique touring holiday, enhanced by 7 or more days cruising the Inside Passage on your Holland America Line ship.

Our Seven Night Cruises

From Vancouver:

Cruise past evergreen forests and Indian fishing villages to Juneau, Alaska's Capital, then immerse yourself in the 1898 gold rush in Skagway. The highlight of every Alaska cruise is a day spent at Glacier Bay where you have a front row view of the fabulous spires, pinnacles and pillars of ice. Finally Ketchikan, a quaint weathered town clinging to the mountainside.

From Seattle:

Sail Vista-class through Seattle's lovely Puget Sound bound for forested isles and icy-blue glaciers. From rugged Alaskan frontier towns to the colonial splendour of Victoria on Vancouver island and the exquisite Butchart Gardens. From orca whales breaching to bald headed eagles in the tree tops, this cruise has it all.

* Lead in fare based on ms Amsterdam 15 & 22 May 08 ex-UK departures. Subject to availability.

From Seward (Anchorage):

Cruise southbound from the icy glaciers of the north and the city of Anchorage and enjoy the peaks of College Fjord, Hubbard, the "galloping" glacier, Glacier Bay National Park and the fascinating settlements – Sitka with its Russian onion domes, Ketchikan's native totems, and the famed old carriages of the White Pass & Yukon Railroad, built for the gold prospectors of 1898!
